

This scavenger hunt provides an overview of public art along Burnsville's downtown. Begin the hunt at the town square. During your search, feel free to take pictures of the works and share them on your favorite social media site.* HAPPY HUNTING!

CLUE #1

First stop, the man with the plan. Find the sculpture standing proud in the town square. Who is the town named after? Who established our town site?

CLUE #2

Walk south through the light posts and cross the street. On the corner of the Old Yancey County Public Library, find Rob Levin's sculpture made of _____ & _____ and titled _____.

CLUE #3

Continue down South Main St. until you find a mountain range made from metal. Who are the artists? Do you know what flower covers the front of the sculpture?

CLUE #4

Dip into the town center. A picture is worth a thousand words, or a thousand Reasons Why We Live in Yancey County, a _____ by artist Barbara Webster in _____.

CLUE #5

Back outside, take a right and continue south to the corner of the town center. What animal is resting on a rock under the Do Not Block Intersection sign?

CLUE #6

Round the corner to the right, making your way to the other Town Center entrance. Find a mural in full bloom. Who painted this mural?

CLUE #7

Head back to S. Main, crossing the street. A large cement sculpture greets you on the corner. What is the title? In this piece by Martin Webster, do you think the title describes the sculpture?

CLUE #8

Make your way back to the town square, stop to explore the Petals & Leaves sculpture. These aren't our normal soft petals & leaves. What material did Ila R. Seltzer use?

CLUE #9

A hop, skip, and jump past Petals & Leaves, you'll find a balancing act! Carl Peverall titles this piece _____. Why do you think he did that?

burnsville IT'S A scavenger HUNT

CLUE #11

Continue down the brick sidewalk, turning every once in a while, to notice the sides of the buildings. What building "doesn't allow dogs"? This mural is next to _____ and _____.

CLUE #12

Enjoy a sweet treat across the street and check out Toe River Arts Council's mural at 102 W. Main St. What kinds of art are depicted in this mural?

CLUE #13

Time to follow the yellow brick road back to the square. We are almost done! What color are the horses under the rainbow in this mural by Rhea Ormond?

CLUE #14

Wait! Don't cross the street yet. Follow the sidewalk to the left to a mural full of Hope. Roundabout was envisioned by _____ and created by Randall Honeycutt.

CLUE #15

Last, but not least, find out what time you completed your trek by locating the sundial on N. Main St. How does a sun dial work?
