

ANSWERS

- #1 Otway Burns
John "Yellow-Jacket John" Bailey
- #2 Sticks (and) Stones
Rock Bridge
- #3 Norman Rabeck & Eric Blau
Rhododendron
- #4 Quilt
2006
- #5 Turtle
- #6 Robert Johnson
- #7 "Stream"
Opinion answer
- #8 Stainless steel and copper
- #9 Ann-Marie
Opinion answer
- #10 Coca Cola
Rhea Ormond
- #11 Yummy Yarns
Off the Beaten Path
- #12 Theater, music, weaving, pottery, painting
- #13 All the colors of the rainbow
- #14 Ed and Doris Hunter
- #15 Sundials are the oldest known instruments for telling time. The surface of a sundial has markings for each hour of daylight.
As the Sun moves across the sky, another part of the sundial casts a shadow on these markings. The position of the shadow shows what time it is.

what is PUBLIC ART?

Public art is not an art "form." Its size can be huge or small. It can tower fifty feet high or call attention to the pavement beneath your feet. Its shape can be abstract or realistic (or both), and it may be cast, carved, built, assembled, or painted. It can be site-specific or stand in contrast to its surroundings. It often interprets the history of the place, its people, and sometimes addresses a social or environmental issue.

Many of the pieces are funded through public art ordinances. The remaining pieces were funded by businesses and community groups, and we are thankful for their continued support of public art projects.

Did you see any other pieces of public art on your walk? What about the quilt squares on some of the buildings? [For more information, visit www.quilttrailswnc.org].

We hope to continue shaping our community into a haven for visual enjoyment. Think about the sidewalks that are being laid out throughout our town, connecting and drawing in visitors. What do we want them to experience? What do we want to experience when we walk from the town square to the library? Please take a moment to let Toe River Arts and Path know what other types of Public Art you would like to see in our town!

JOURNEY OF THE ARTS | ART OF THE JOURNEY

WWW.TOERIVERARTS.ORG

